Miss Football

Miss Connie Dement

King

Steve Lorbert

Our new queen receives the crown.

A gracious bow for her majesty.

On November 8, 1969, the annual Football Coronation was held at Cleveland High School. A suspenseful part of the evening was the crowning of the charming Miss Connie Dement as Miss Football of 1969, by retiring Queen, Miss Robyn McDonald. The King was Steve Lorbert, who was chosen by his fellow teammates. Karen Hobbs and Mark Alexander were the M.C.'s. The Marlock dancers entertained the Queen, court, and guests, after which a dance was held to the soul sound of the Régeants.

Snowball Dance

The third annual Snowball Dance, sponsored by the Seniors, was held at Cleveland High on the ninth of January. The highlight of the evening was the announcement of Miss Toni Knackstedt as this year's queen and Terry Bader as king. Later in the evening a drawing was held for an attendance prize, which was a huge stuffed teddy bear. Music was provided by the Apostles.

Students dance to the beat of the Apostles.

Miss Basketball

Miss Joan Pourcill

The Basketball Coronation was held at Cleveland High on the evening of February seventh. The first event, a delightful play, titled "The Ugly Duckling", was presented by the faculty. Following the play was the coronation, where the court was announced by Karen Hobbs and Mark Alexander, who were Mistress and Master of Ceremonies. The announcement of Miss Joan Pourcillie as Miss Basketball of 1970 brought the evening to a thrilling climax. Chosen as this year's king was Bill Taylor. Our new queen then received the crown from retiring queen, Jane Farmer. A dance was held afterward in the gym.

The perfect couple.

Music was provided by the Beltones.

Camelot

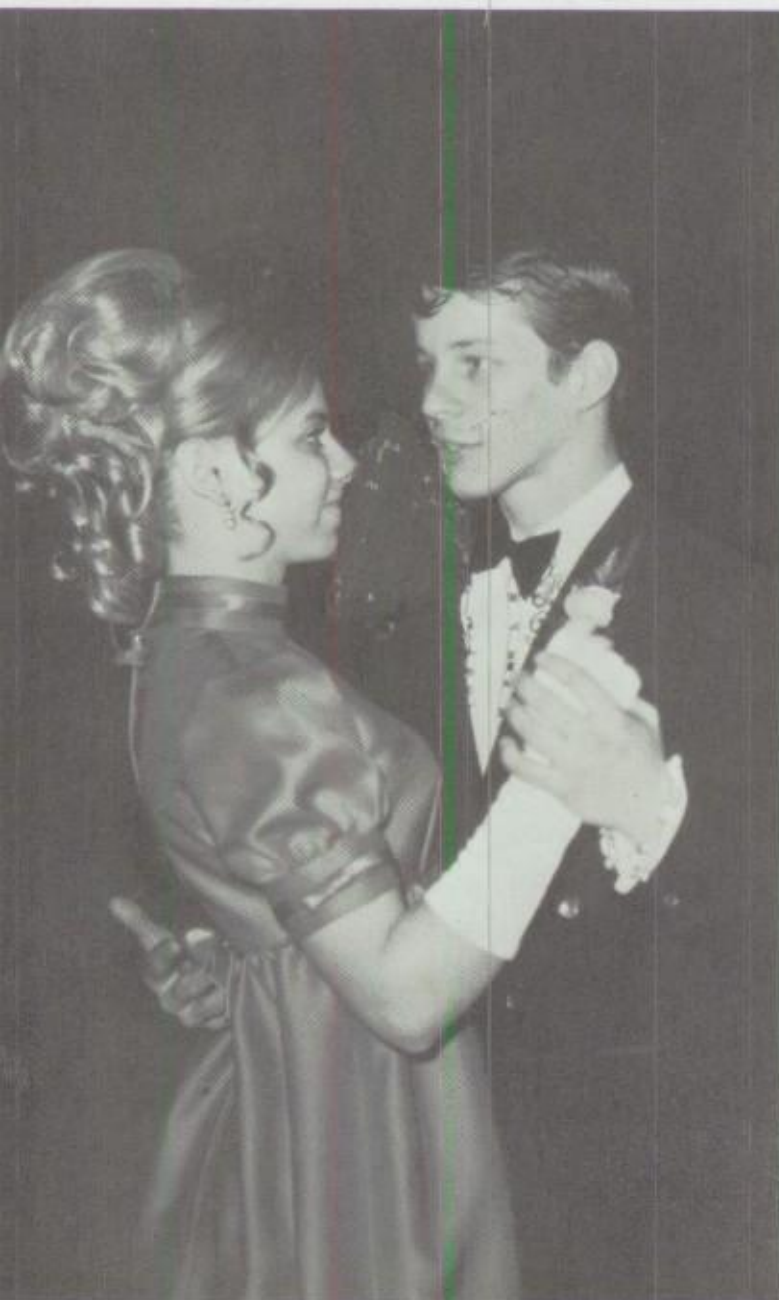

"If Ever I Would Leave You"

February twenty-eighth was an evening that the class of 1970 will not soon forget, for the prom always proves to be a memorable event in the Senior year. The sixth century decorations and centerpieces made up the medieval atmosphere of Camelot. Serving as Mistress and Master of ceremonies were Diane Levasseur and Steve Lansing. The affair was held at the Electricians' Hall, and music was provided by Johnny Polzin and his orchestra.

Should we eat these, or are they part of the decorations?

My cummerbund is killing me!

It's way past my beddy-bye time.

“A Time For Us”

The Class of 1971 held their Junior Prom at the Bel-Air East Motel on the evening of April twenty-fourth. The Prom began with a dinner, followed by dancing to the music of Buddy Kay's Band. During the coronation Bev Trokey and Dennis Magraw served as Mistress and Master of Ceremonies. The enchantment and beauty of the evening was over all too soon, as the Juniors realized that their Prom had ended.

Do you know I was in the beauty shop until 6:30?

Isn't this romantic!

LEFT TO RIGHT: Mary Larkins, Joseph Baeres, Vivian Alexander, Steve Bircher, Queen Jan Wingbermuehle, King John Rivituso, Barb Svehla, Jim Ward, Dana Keigley, Bob Tallent.

Gee, doesn't everyone look nice tonight.

Christmas Dance

On the 19th of December, the Big Red Castle was visited by two jolly personalities, Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus, (alias Sally Cole and Mike O'Neal), who came to preside over the Christmas Dance. Students danced and had a jolly old time. Everyone was in the spirit of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus

The Beltones provided the music for the merry occasion.

Where's the mistletoe?

May Festival

The vocal department, under the supervision of Mrs. Ethel Ebbinghaus, presented this year's May Festival on the seventh of May in the school auditorium. With the help of Mrs. Marlock and the Marlock Dancers, a delightful and very entertaining program was given. Songs varied from religious music to popular music. There was also music from various current Broadway musicals.

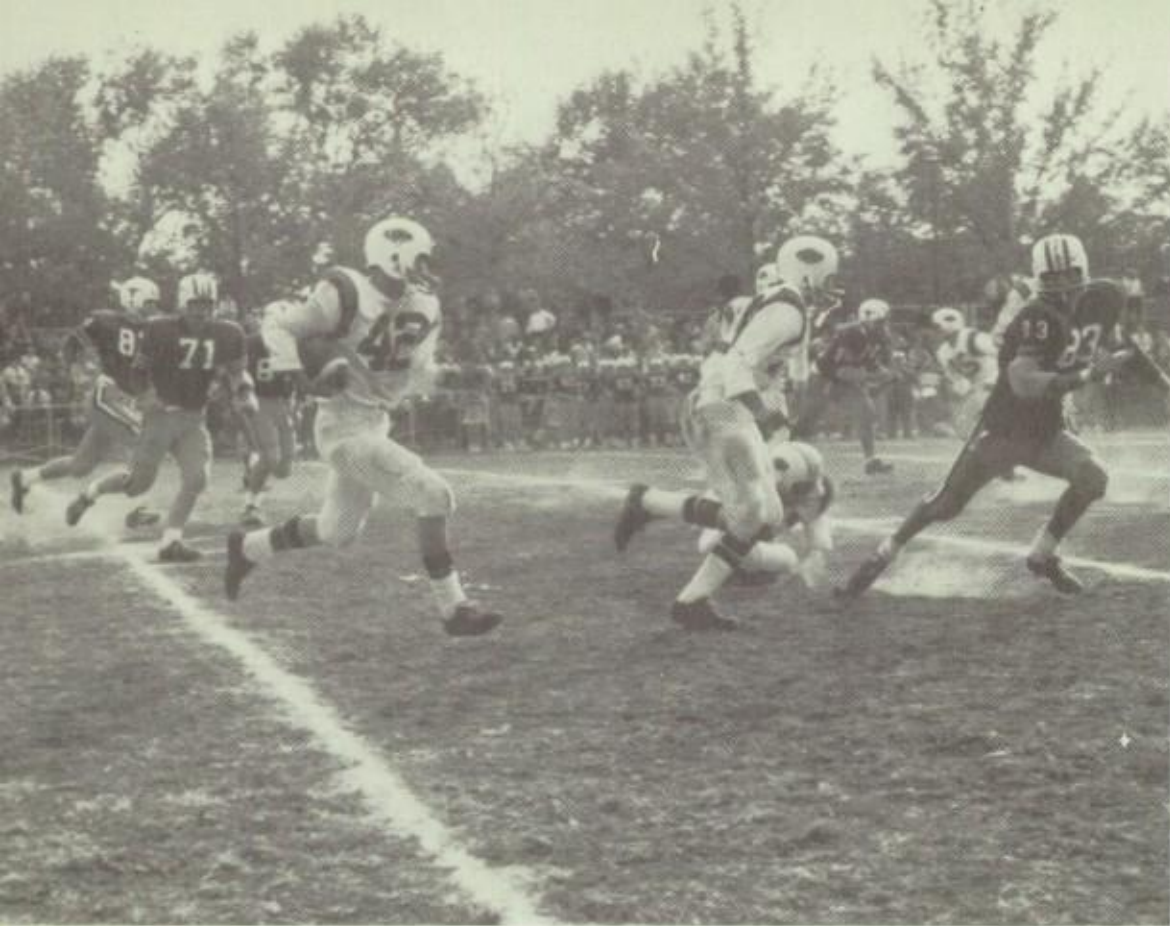

"You Are Sixteen," sung by Sue Allen and Guy Ecker.

The choir does a number of selections from Fiddler On The Roof.

Student Council consists of elected representatives of the advisories. Under this year's new system the Council is divided into various committees: election, dress, sports, publicity, and decoration. Each committee meets individually, then compares minutes at general meetings. They delve into the different aspects of student life at CHS.

Behind the scenes at CHS, Audio Visual Club members usually go unnoticed. But they are the ones who set up the curtains, run the sound system, and manage the lights for all auds, coronations, and other special events and programs.

However, their work is not done only during programs and auds. During their unassigned periods members devote their time to providing projectors, tape recorders, and record players for classroom use. After school, members can be found in the aud experimenting with various techniques of lighting and sound.

Editors behind the news.

The ORANGE & BLUE keeps students informed on the different activities around school. Coverage is given to social events such as coronations and proms. The activities of the sports and clubs are reviewed. Throughout the year outstanding students are spotlighted. Various articles reflecting student attitudes on different issues are on the editorial page.

During the second semester the newspaper returned to a six column format. The additional space allows for the use of more and larger photographs and a more comprehensive reporting of school incidents.

Distributive Education is a program for students who attend school in the morning while working in the afternoon. DECA, the Distributive Education Club of America, is a nationwide organization for these students. In March, eight DE students attended the state DECA conference in Columbia, Mo. They competed in categories pertaining to retailing and merchandising. Several members returned with trophies or certificates for their effective ability in sales techniques. President of the club, Mary Cook, attended the National Leadership Conference held in Minnesota.

Various facets of teaching careers are explored by FTA. A wide variety of guest speakers included Mrs. Nina Bley, a Phillipine exchange teacher who formerly taught at CHS, and Dr. Herminghaus, head of the Curriculum Division of the Board of Education.

Field trips to Southern Illinois University at Carbondale, Michael School for Handicapped Children, and Harris Teachers College have helped give members a better view of the teaching opportunities in the profession.

Foreign language students study the customs and culture of Spain, France, and Germany in these clubs. To gain practice in speech and grammar, meetings are usually conducted in the language of each club. The informality of the meetings leads to the further comprehension of the language.

The foreign language clubs of Cleveland High School were formed to help the students have a better understanding of the heritage behind the languages which they learn.

Thirty-Five Years of Dedication to Education

During his career as an educator, Dr. William Kottmeyer enhanced the efficiency of the St. Louis Public School system. Among the positions of importance which he has held are director of educational research, assistant superintendent in charge of personnel, assistant superintendent in charge of elementary schools, first deputy superintendent, and superintendent of instruction.

Towards the improvement of school instruction, Dr. Kottmeyer initiated several programs, including the work-study program for high schools, the expansion of technical and vocational training opportunities, the revision of library facilities, and the formation of a plan to reclaim student dropouts.

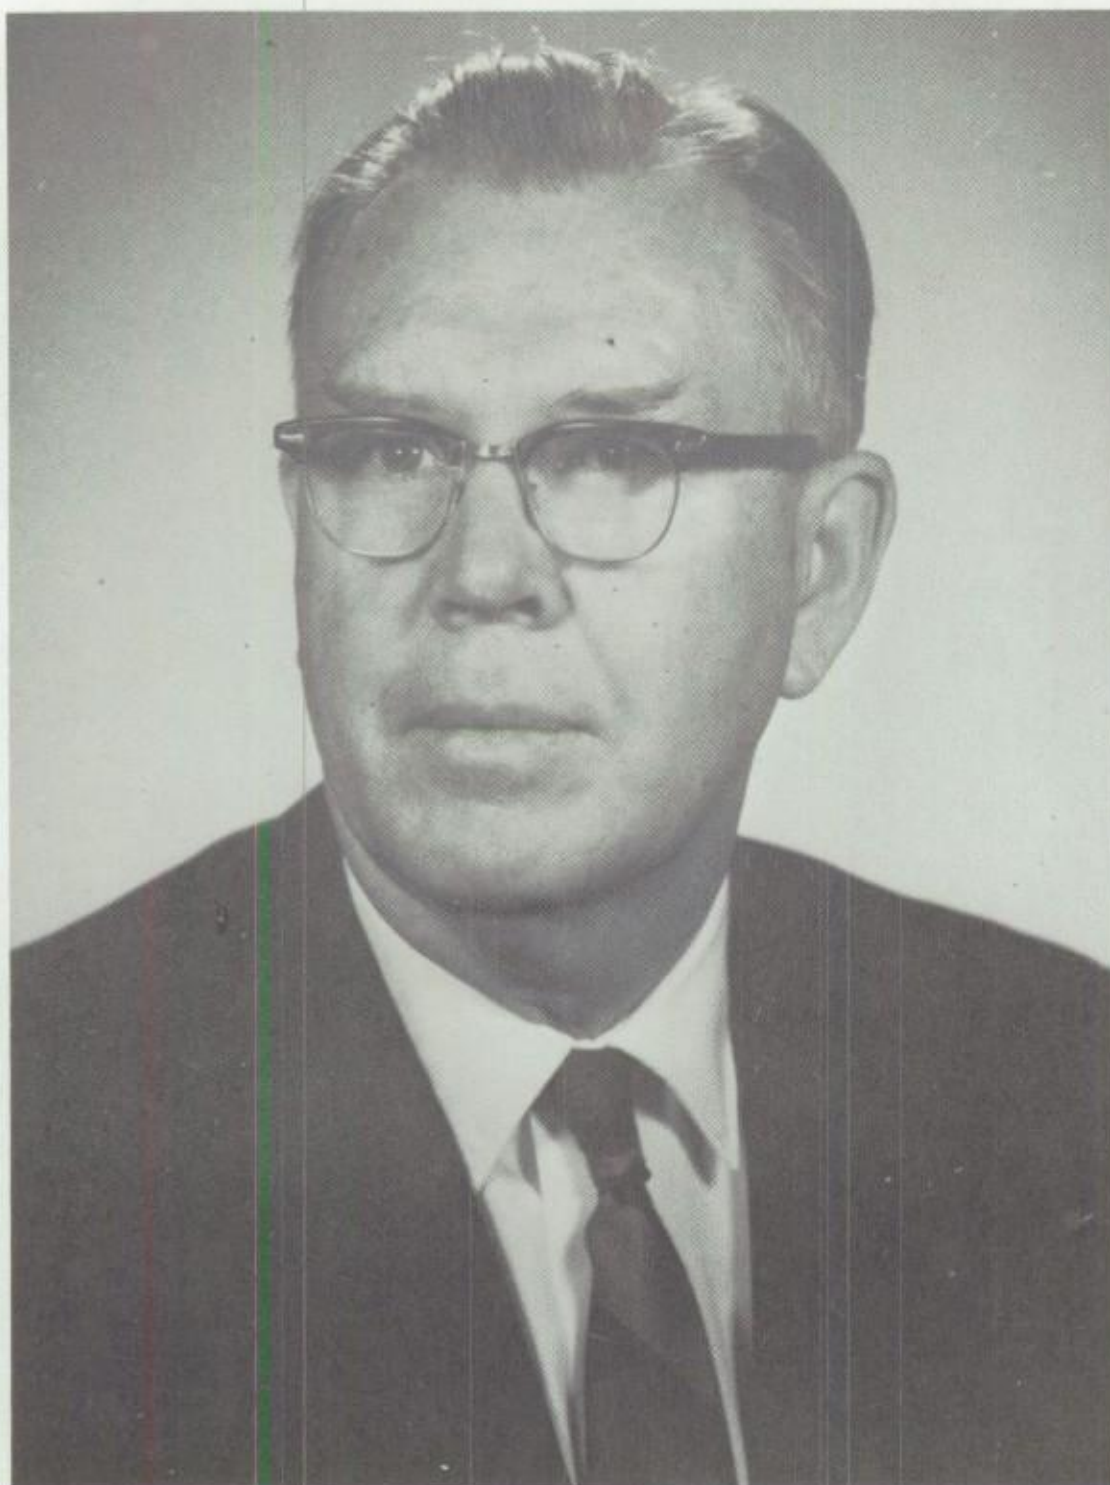

He is nationally known as an author of instructional materials and reading textbooks.

To you, Dr. Kottmeyer, we dedicate the '70 BEACON.
